About Us

Ebenezer Presbyterian Church in Wolf Creek Township, Mercer County, has a long history and rich tradition serving this area as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

We are proud of our Reformed heritage and our commitment to the truths of God's Word. Our desire is to glorify God in all that we do as we seek to transform lives through the gospel of Jesus Christ.

We seek to live and serve as a community of God's people, modeling the love and hope of Jesus Christ.

Help us to spread the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We Believe . . .

- in one God who has existed eternally in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We call this the doctrine of the Trinity.
 - the Bible is the word of God written. It is inspired, inerrant, infallible and authoritative.
 - Jesus Christ is fully divine and fully human. Although Christ is equal to the Father in terms of His divine nature, He is subordinate to the Father in His role in redemption. His perfect obedience enabled Him to be the sin bearer for His chosen people and earned the rewards of heaven promised to the redeemed.
 - the Bible clearly teaches the distinct personality of the Holy Spirit. He applies the work of Christ on the cross to the hearts of those who believe, through a supernatural transformation. It produces within us a new desire for God and a decision to live a life of holiness as the Holy Spirit works within us.
 - there are two sacraments – Baptism and Communion. These
- are “sacred” acts because they were instituted by Christ, signs which are means of grace presented to believers. In receiving these sacraments we respond to God’s grace and affirm our faith and commitment to Him.
- * Baptism is the sign of the New Covenant. It was instituted by Christ as a sign by which God seals His pledge to the elect that they are included in the covenant of grace.
 - * Communion, or the Lord’s Supper, is a ritual meal and an act of worship in which believers share bread and wine/grape juice to remember Christ’s death on the cross and celebrate the new covenantal relationship they now have with God.
- the 'Church' refers to all people who belong to the Lord, those who have been purchased by the blood of Christ on the cross. It is the duty and privilege of every Christian to be united as the body of Christ. It is our responsibility not to neglect meeting together for worship, to be nurtured and disciplined, and to be actively involved as witnesses in the mission of the church.
